*Opening Sentences

Susan

One: Beloved, we come this day to the heart of the mystery of God's love:

All: It is a love that seeks not supremacy, but service.

One: It is a love that finds power in humility.

All: It is a love that gives itself freely, even unto death.

One: Come, see what love the Father has for us.

*Hymn 220 (v 1-2)

Call to Confession

Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death. With the raw honesty of Jesus, let us cry out in confession.

Prayer of Confession

Lord Jesus Christ, our betrayal, denial, and violence paved the way to your cross. We know it is preposterous, in light of our cruelty, to ask anything of you, in light of your pain; but we pray earnestly: have mercy on us, for we cannot bear the weight of our sin. Save us in your unfathomable love. A time of silence prayer is kept.

Declaration of Forgiveness

One: All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and Christ has borne the iniquity of us all.

All: Through the grace of God, we are freed from sin to walk in righteousness. We believe the good news: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Silence

*Please rise in body or spirit
All leave in silence, contemplating the death of Jesus.
There is no benediction this evening so that we may remain in a worshipful state of mind throughout Holy Saturday and until we gather again on Easter morning.
