Mike Brozick is a member of the Elgin and Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestras, the Chicago Philharmonic, and is the principal trumpet of the Northwest Indiana Symphony Orchestra. As well, he has performed with the Chicago, Pittsburgh, and Detroit Symphony Orchestras, the Lyric Opera of Chicago, the Milwaukee Symphony, and the Grant Park Orchestra.

Brozick recorded Gustav Mahler’s Symphony No. 2 with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Suite from Richard Strauss’ Elektra with the Pittsburgh Symphony. He toured Europe with the Pittsburgh Symphony throughout Spain and in Vienna’s Musikverein.

At the Lyric Opera he was featured on stage as one of the King’s Trumpets in Wagner’s Lohengrin and played the Egyptian trumpet in Verdi’s Aida.

Brozick’s work as a chamber musician includes his membership in the Elgin Chamber Brass and the International Chamber Artists, and he has performed live on WFMT, Chicago’s classical music radio station.

Brozick earned his Bachelor of Music Education degree from Duquesne University and a Master of Music in Performance from Rice University. He was a Fulbright Fellow, studying at the Staatliche Hochschule für Musik in Detmold, Germany.

Mike is an active recitalist and has been featured as a soloist with the Northwest Indiana, DuPage, and Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestras as well as the Salt Creek Sinfonietta.

The Rev. Craig S. Felde is Pastor of Sojourners Pub Church, which holds services in Pubs and Bars in Chicago’s Western Suburbs.

A graduate of Lewis University and Concordia Evangelical Protestant Seminary, he also holds graduate qualifications in Ministry from Cuddesdon College at Oxford University, UK; Religious Philanthropy from Indiana University’s Lily School of Philanthropy; and Pioneer Ministry from Cliff College of the University of Manchester, UK.

Felde has other varied interests, including world poverty programs, coaching youth soccer, and a long-standing love of classical music. He is a decorated officer in the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary and a member of the Incident Command Staff at the USCG Marine Safety Unit Chicago.

Craig has played timpani and percussion with the Joliet Symphony and at many local churches for over forty-five years.

A graduate of St. Olaf College and Indiana University, Elizabeth K. Waldon, MM, served as Organist and Assistant Director of Music at Community Presbyterian Church from 2009–2011. She is currently Director of Music Ministries at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, Downers Grove, where she leads an extensive worship and music program that includes multiple choirs and comprehensive worship planning.

Waldon studied organ with Douglas Cleveland, John Ferguson, Jane Holstein, and Larry Smith and has been a featured organ soloist with the Sinfonietta Bel Canto, the Salt Creek Sinfonietta, and the Downers Grove Choral Society. She has given solo organ recitals at Olivet Nazarene University, Loyola University Chicago (at the Madonna della Strada Chapel), and the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago.

In addition, Betsy and her husband, timpanist Craig Felde, play in the rock band Kill Bill/KB Ensemble. She has served as Dean of the Fox Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and is proud to be a member of the prize-winning trivia team Walfelderski.
